

THE DAILY STAR

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17

It is in order to accommodate Eastern advertisers in the Star, Mr. E. Duncanson, No. 72 Astor House, New York City, has been appointed our general and special agent for the Eastern States. This will be a branch office of the Star, Mr. Duncanson being authorized to make advertising contracts on our behalf, and receipt all collections therefor in our name.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—2:30 P. M.—Flour quiet and easy. Wheat steady but light sales and very little offered. Corn, moderate movement and market rather easy. Whisky in good demand at yesterday's price. Mess pork steady and unchanged. Lard, fair movement at about previous quotations. Meats not wanted to any extent, but held steady and only moderate offerings. Cattle and hogs in fair demand and prices firm with little or no change since yesterday.

THE COVINGTON OFFICE OF THE STAR is at No. 7 East Pike street, in Hardin's Insurance Office.

COVINGTON.

The celebrated trotter "Smuggler" is in the city.

There is a band of gypsies camped in South Covington.

Mr. Joseph Whitehouse left last night for Sherman, Texas.

Mr. James G. Sowden, of Glasgow, Scotland, was in the city yesterday.

The Water-works Board held an uninteresting meeting yesterday afternoon.

Complaints reached us about the irregularity of the Main-street ferryboat.

Jim Gann is missing from his boarding-house in the West End. His friends offer a reward for news of his whereabouts.

LOVE'S LOTTERY.—Geo. G. Gillard, aged twenty-three, and Elizabeth Virginia Wilson, aged seventeen, both of Kenon County.

Hunter Lawrence, the handsome policeman, leaves Saturday on a visit to Indiana. The bride, they say, is both wealthy and handsome.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Raywood took place this morning from the Cathedral, and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

The case of Wood Bowen, for trying to monopolize Madison street, was called before Judge Tobbs this morning and continued until to-morrow morning.

Some men evidently desirous of going to the Work-house have stolen two wagon loads of rocks belonging to Peter Smith, on the corner of Pleasant and Scott streets.

The average daily consumption of water in this city last month was one million four hundred and twenty-five thousand gallons. How much went with your whisky?

Mr. Alf R. Mullins and wife celebrated the twelfth anniversary of their marriage yesterday. Their many friends surprised them with many and costly presents.

A change has taken place in the condition of Tom Anderson, the young man whose skull was crushed in last Sunday week by John Kearney. All hope of recovery is now abandoned, and his death is hourly expected.

POLICE COURT.—H. L. Ople, an alleged lawyer, and James Francis, who bears a similar reputation for a detective, had a little set-to on Madison street yesterday, which they will explain Saturday. Frank Hicott, breach of the peace, continued; Ed. Edwards and G. Sekrist, drunk, $1 each.

The reception given by the Glides Dancing Circle last night at Odd Fellows' Hall, was a brilliant affair in every respect. Terpsichore reigned supreme, and the happy hours sped swiftly away on the wings of pleasure to the melodious strains of Thompson's string band. The boleros were numerous, the boys gallant and the attendance large. Nothing marred the pleasures of the evening.

A few days since Mr. Sylvanus Simmons, engineer of fire engine No. 2, was suspended for drunkenness. On yesterday afternoon while he was seated in the saloon of Mr. Jacob Schaller, on Bakewell street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, he drew from his hip pocket a Smith & Wesson seven-shooter, and made an attempt to shoot himself, and only for the prompt action of Mr. Schaller would no doubt have ended his life.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—The Democratic Convention of the Sixth Congressional District of Kentucky met yesterday at Williamstown.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported the names of L. C. Norman as Chairman, and S. B. Applegate Secretary, and the various newspaper reporters present as Assistant Secretaries.

From motion of Judge Fenley, of Kenton County, seconded by Mr. J. M. Collins, of Grant County, Hon. John G. Carlisle was nominated by acclamation.

WEST COVINGTON.

Our little burg is excited over the temperance movement. Several of our citizens are wishing for a commencement. Application has been made for the hall. If refused, the grand mass meeting will be held in grove, with good speakers from Cincinnati, Covington and Ludlow.

NEWPORT.

Water-works Board will hold a confab to-night.

City Treasurer Eugene Bowers is under the weather.

A new track for the Dayton dummies will shortly be laid.

Circuit Court convenes Monday. There are but thirty-five cases on the docket.

Mr. Jacob Creutz has been elected attorney for the Newport Building Association.

There is an unprecedentedly large amount of stock arriving daily over the Short Line Road.

LICENSED TO LOVE.—John Wessling and Anna Hoops, Charles E. Shay and Eliza A. Elliott.

The Choral Society at their meeting to-night will render Mendelssohn's "Ave Verum."

Miss Julia Gould will entertain a number of her friends at a feast of song at her residence this evening.

The "Young Americans" were entertained last evening at the residence of Mr. W. W. Pike, on Front street.

Judge Makibben has appointed Mr. T. B. Youtsey as commissioner for the settlement with the Sheriff of the county levy.

There is scarcely a doubt in the minds of our citizens generally but that Lieutenant Connolly is entirely innocent of the charges preferred against him.

The Police Commissioner will leave no stone unturned to ferret out the parties who are at the bottom of the scheme to black-mail an efficient officer.

In the case of W. P. Moullinier against C. G. Wallace, which has been tried three times, the jury in the Pendleton County Court yesterday brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $2,500.

There is a balance of nearly $500 lying at the First National Bank that was subscribed for a special object—the relief of the Southern sufferers. Why not call a meeting of the Relief Committee at once and place this money where it will do the most good?

As mentioned in yesterday's Star a special meeting of the Police Commissioners was held last evening. The Board, accompanied by members of the press, Chief of Police Cottingham and Lieutenant Connolly, proceeded to the residence of Mr. W. K. Bond, where the meeting was held. Mayor Harton stated its object, namely, to investigate certain charges made against Lieutenant Connolly. At Mr. Bond's request Mr. Connolly made a statement, which was to the effect that the whole affair was without the shadow of truth, but was the work of spite and enmity. On motion the meeting adjourned until to-morrow night. Mr. Connolly in the meantime to be relieved from duty, which was at his own request.

BELLEVUE, KY.

Council meets to-night.

Mayor Morgan is happy. It's a little girl.

A new brick sidewalk has been put on Center street.

Quite a large number of the temperance people, with baskets full of good things, surprised Prof. McGinnis, in Dayton, last night.

A young lady of Cincinnati held the ticket which drew the barrel of flour as a prize at the late concert. She has kindly donated it to the Committee, to sell for the same cause.

LUDLOW, KY.

Mayor Williams opens his Court every morning at 9 o'clock.

The boys are quite indignant over the destruction of their bench.

R. T. Malins, the photographer, who has been delighting both old and young here with fine pictures for the past few days, is going away Monday next.

Mr. Solomon Walters, the well known real estate agent of West Covington, reports being robbed of 1 cent by foot-pads on the River Road, near Bacon Run, last Saturday night.

The knotty question that some of the soldier boys are just now trying to solve is how to get out of the Kenton Light Guards. One enthusiastic son of Mars says he traveled from Indiana here to join them, but now he would tramp from here to Salt Lake to quit them, and then those decisions lately made by the Covington Courts are perfectly awful for the "melish" to contemplate.

HAMILTON.

Miss Mattie Overpeck, sister of Walter Overpeck, is quite sick.

Hon. Samuel P. Hunt was in the city yesterday on legal business.

In the case of Wm. Bailey et al. vs. Geo. Huffman the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.

THE SOCIALIST BILL.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—The consideration of the Socialist Bill was resumed in the Reichstag yesterday. Clause 20, establishing the state of siege, was passed, with some additional stringent provisions, proposed by Herr Ackermann. Clauses 21 and 22 were then passed, the latter limiting the action of this bill to March 31st, 1881. The further consideration of the bill was then adjourned till Friday.

The Central Committee of the Socialistic Associations, foreseeing the certain success of the Government in the passage of the Socialist Bill, have dissolved its organization, recommending its friends to advocate their principles privately.

Great Britain.

A GROUNDLESS PANIC.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—A panic was created in Manchester yesterday, owing to a false rumor that the Queen's Building Society had failed. There was a heavy run made on the institution, which was partially met. The Society announced at the close of business that full payments would be made on Thursday.

WANTS THE TELEGRAPH.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says it is stated that the Amer has invited Russia to extend the telegraphs into Afghanistan.

THE NEW VICEROY OF CANADA.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Duke of Edinburgh leaves Coburg at the end of this week to join Her Majesty's ship the Black Prince, which has been detailed to escort the Marquis of Lorne and Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, Marchioness of Lorne, to Canada. It has been determined that the new Governor General and his distinguished wife shall enter Canada as no Viceroy ever entered it before, and the most extensive preparations for the voyage have been made. The Gazette announces that Her Majesty the Queen has been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable Sir John Douglas Sutherland Campbell, K.T.G.C.M.G., commonly called Marquis of Lorne, to be Governor General of the Dominion of Canada.

ANOTHER GLASGOW FAILURE.

A disaster from Glasgow says another local failure occurred there yesterday, which proportionately swells the list of disasters in that afflicted city, namely: Brown, McLeod & Adam, fancy goods manufacturers. Their liabilities are $10,000.

Italy.

EXCELLENT FINANCIAL CONDITION.

ROME, Oct. 17.—Signor Cairoli, President of the Council, in addressing his constituents at Pavia said that Italy's financial position was most excellent; that there was a surplus of sixty millions in the Treasury, of which twenty millions were available, and that there would be a reduction of taxation.

The East.

WAR WITH AFGHANISTAN PROBABLE.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—A dispatch from Simla says the Afghans are mustering in force at the Khyber Pass, and have largely reinforced Ali Musjid and Candahar. The English troops are apprehensive of disaster. Mercantile telegrams from Bombay express the conviction that war with the Amer is inevitable.

In the Dominion.

CABINET NOT FORMED.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—The Cabinet has not yet been formed.

ELECTED BISHOP.
